

Snowing in the summer

by Hafsa Tak

One day there was a boy called Arush.
He loved the sun.
But one day Arush told it is too hot.
Because it was sunny for 2 months.
Actually, Arush liked the sun.

It is too hot for me said Arush.
Arush changed his mind.
"I want it to snow", said Arush.
"I like snow more than the sun because it is so hot with the sun", thought Arush.

I know that it will not snow because it is summer.

And then a wizard appeared.

"Who are you", said Arush.

"I am a wizard."

"I will grant one wish," told the wizard.

"Which wish should I grant you?", asked the wizard.

"I want it to snow" shouted Arush.
"Your wish is my command", said the wizard.
And then it was snowing.
